of truth. Not one dull moment during the entire performance, as the manage-ment have secured for between each act some of the best artists in vandeville. Those included in the feature acts are: "Herrmann, the Great Handlaving just arrived in town, I am prepared to do all kinds of tar concrete work, sidewalks, driveways, gutters and conference of police and detectives in every city this company has appeared.

Prof. Herrmann invites any person to lock him in handcuffs and leg irons of their own or the police department of this city or any other, and he will free himself from the same. Others are Burton, presenting a high class musical act, also Harry Williams, character comedian, and Ethelyn Mayer, lady baritone presenting a comedy-singing sketch. The prices of admission are popular. Miss Adia Wadsworts, formerly leading lady with the Quincy Acams Sawyer Co., has been engaged to play the leading role with "The Train Robbers."

Having just arrived in town, I am prepared to do all kinds of tar concrete work, sidewalks, driveways, gutters and caves work, side value cemented and roofs repaired. Leave all orders at mixing works, upper end Maple avenue, Barre, or by mail to 163 River street, Montpeller. E. C. Getchell.

Arrangements have been completed by Granite lodge, No. 35, F. and A. M., for a return engagement of the Boston Choral Art club, Thursday evening, November 14th. The club consists of the Albion, Corinthian and Rangles Street Male quartets, being the same which gave such satisfaction in November last. there isn't something doing in the fun making line. The first act happens at a railroad station, and every one who enters the door takes part in the happenings, citaer voluntarily or other-wise, mostly otherwise. An electric car in Japan is the means of continuing the fun in the second act. All kinds of pas-sengers are catered to and Jos, Sullivan and Prett Reed as the motorman and conductor certainly have their hands full, and a car fulf too of entertaining travellers. The last act is a pawn shop in 'Frisco, with a green clerk in charge, and the way he gets things mixed up is nothing to the trouble he has trying to straighten them out when the boss comes in
